Scott,

If you haven't sent this out yet, hold off here. We're thinking about alternative ways to word the e-mail blast to make the White House comfortable with the inclusion of Tina Tchen's name.

Thanks,
Ruthzee

Scott,

Three comments:

- When sending out an e-mail fundraising blast, the ask cannot have the appearance of being earmarked for the purpose of defeating Trump. We need to make sure to include general language about Democrats or Republicans more broadly. I inserted an example, but feel free to change.
- Tina Tchen is an Assistant to POTUS and Chief of Staff to FLOTUS, thereby triggering the Hatch Act. We cannot include Executive Branch employees on an event invite that contains solicitation. Please check for this before you add names to any invitation.
- Laetitia's name is misspelled.

Let me know if you have questions.

Hi Ruthzee - could you please look over the attached language and let me know if there are any flags?

Thanks
Scott
